DETAILED ACTION

This Office Action is in response to the amendment filed August 15, 2008 for the above identified patent application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1, 4, 6-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over German reference 39 22 552 (DE '552) in view of US Patent 2,961,856 (US '856).

DE '552 teaches a gear mechanism having a driving gear wheel (10), seated in a manner fixed against relative rotation on a drive shaft, and a driven gear wheel (12), meshing with the driving gear wheel and driving a driven shaft, wherein a spring- elastic damping element (13) are located between the driven gear wheel and the driven shaft.

DE '552 does not teach a plurality of dampening elements disposed between the driven gear and the driven shaft. The prior art to US '856 teaches a plurality of spring- elastic damping elements (32) located between the driven gear wheel (18) and the driven shaft (12). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to replace the dampening arrangement of DE '552 with the dampening device having a plurality of dampening elements, as taught by US '856, motivation being to provide a gear that reduces shock, strain, and torsional vibrations.

With respect to claim 4, US '856 illustrates the driven wheel being braced in the axial direction by an annular shoulder (33) on the drive shaft by way of the slaving device.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
